

ORIGINES
ET MUTATIONES

Call for Papers:

Origines et mutationes IV - Law

We hereby have the pleasure to invite you to the 4th international conference "Origines et mutationes". This edition focuses on the topic of law in the countries of the Baltic Sea Region from the Middle Ages up to the Industrial Age. The conference has an interdisciplinary character and is aimed at historians, legal historians, historians of arts, sociologists, philosophers, anthropologists and archeologists.

Individual & group panels, which shall consist of 3 related topic will be accepted after preliminary evaluation. Conference presentations & proceedings should pertain to:

1. influence of law on society; society and law; law as a tool of social discipline; law and judicature from social perspective;
2. development of law; legal culture; lawyers and their works; sources of law,
3. normative model and legal practice,
4. evolution of judicature,
5. law and injustice,
6. legal archeology,
7. law and art; law in art,
8. law and religion

Place:	Baltic International Cultural Park Faktoria, 83-000 Pruszcz Gdański; ul. Zastawna, Pomeranian Voivodeship, Poland; http://www.faktoria-pruszcz.pl
Date:	7th – 8th September 2017
Language:	English
Registrations:	baltic.conf@gmail.com
Application Form:	Please type your Scientific Title, Full Name & Surname and Institution. Alternatively please send www.academia.edu link. Further information on will be passed to participants in May 2017.
Abstracts:	For individual abstracts: max. 700 signs with spaces For Panels: max. 2000 signs describing the panel and the presentations Deadline for sending applications: 30th April 2017.
Presentations:	Max. 20 minutes
Proceedings:	Max. 12 pages, with summary, scientific apparatus & bibliography should be sent till 31st December 2017.