

Business is in fashion 1st level University Master in Management and Textile Engineering

From October 2016
to July 2017

In the English language
At Città Studi Biella

Full time program
(500 hours class lectures + 500 hours internship)

Why choose the Master MTE

- Direct contact with the leading companies
- Networking opportunities for your future
- Unique experience in a multicultural environment
- Made to measure for the Textile & Fashion Industry

Characteristics of the master

- Master MTE certificate issued by both LIUC - Università Cattaneo and Politecnico di Torino
- Organized by Città Studi Biella, LIUC - Università Cattaneo and Politecnico di Torino
- Master MTE provides participants with an excellent preparation by combining a technical and managerial education for a working position very much in demand within the textile and fashion industry.
- Master MTE is addressed to university graduates and to graduate managers working in the textile sector.
- Master MTE graduates will have the possibility to joint leading positions in the following industry areas:
 - Textile & Clothing Quality and Service
 - Global Supply Chain
 - Production Management
 - Business Unit Management

Plan of study

-  General introductory course of the textile sector
-  Design, Marketing & Fashion
-  Technicality for the textile sector management
-  Operations
-  Management principles and human resource management
-  Testimonials, company visits, supplementary language courses
-  Internship and final thesis

The Master MTE has a maximum number of participants and class attendance is compulsory.
An intensive Italian language course for foreign participants and a Business English course for Italian participants will be included.

Financial aid opportunities: possibility of paid internship

Location

The Master MTE is held in Biella, Italy. Biella is the oldest textile district in Europe and famous for its excellence.

Faculty

University professors and qualified professionals operating in the textile industry form the faculty of the Master MTE.

Campus

The University Campus of Città Studi, designed by the architect Gae Aulenti, includes a modern university residence capable of hosting Italian and International students and sport facilities.

Application procedure

Applications must be sent within June 17, 2016 for NON-EU candidates and July 25, 2016 for Italian and EU.

Applications are accepted only online at www.mastermte.com

Sponsor/Partner companies

